

Don't Have a Computer? You Can Still Use the Internet.

There are publicly available computers in many locations and people who can help you use them. Your first step should be to check out your local public library.

The following is the location of the main library:
Boston Public Library; Main Library
700 Boylston Street
Copley Square
Boston, MA 02117
Tel: (617) 536-5400

In addition to the main library, there are twenty-five branch libraries throughout the neighborhoods of Boston. Call the main library to find the location of the branch nearest you.

Chelsea, Revere, and Winthrop libraries also have computers on which you can access the internet. Call them for specific information about hours and locations.

Chelsea Public Library
569 Broadway
Chelsea, MA 02150-2991
Telephone: (617) 889-8399

Revere Public Library
179 Beach Street
Revere, MA 02151-5089
Telephone: (781) 286-8380

Winthrop Public Library & Museum
2 Metcalf Square
Winthrop, MA 02152-3157
Telephone: (617) 846-1703

The following Boston Community Centers have computers available to Boston residents. Please call to check on the times the computers are available for general use:

Archdale Community Center
125 Brookway Road
Roslindale, MA 02131
(617) 635-5256

Condon Community Center
200 D Street
South Boston, MA 02127
(617) 635-5100

Curley Community Center
1663 Columbia Road
South Boston, MA 02127
(617) 635-5105

Curtis Hall Community Center
20 South Street
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
(617) 635-5193

Gallivan Community Center
61 Woodruff Way
Mattapan, MA 02126
(617) 635-5252

Hyde Park Community Center
1179 River Street
Hyde Park, MA 02131
(617) 635-5178

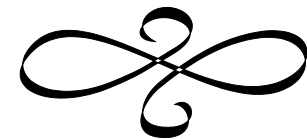

Madison Park Community Center
55 New Dudley Street
Roxbury, MA 02119
(617) 635-5209

Orchard Gardens Community Center
2 Dearborn Street
Roxbury, MA 02118
(617) 635-5240

Roche Family Community Center
1716 Centre Street
West Roxbury, MA 02132
(617) 635-5006

Tobin Community Center
1481 Tremont Street
Roxbury, MA 02129
(617) 635-5216

LEGAL RESOURCES ON THE INTERNET

A Publication of the Suffolk Probate Registry
Community Outreach Program
Richard Iannella, Register

FAMILY LAW

If you need information about family law in Massachusetts the Internet can be a powerful tool for learning about the law.

CHILD SUPPORT

Massachusetts Dept. of Revenue Child Support Enforcement

<http://www.state.ma.us/cse>

Lots of information about child support and enforcement in Massachusetts. The site includes the Application and Agreement for Child Support Enforcement Services, which can be completed online.

Children's Defense Fund

A Parent's Guide To Child Support

<http://www.childrensdefense.org/childsupport.html>

DIVORCE

Family Law Resources

<http://www.neighborhoodlaw.org/family.html>

Substantive information on Mass. divorce and other family law issues. Includes forms and directions for filling them out.

Divorcenet.com: Massachusetts

<http://www.divorcenet.com/ma/ma.html>

Includes articles on a variety of aspects of Mass. divorce law, and an interactive child support worksheet.

Divorce Helpline

<http://www.divorcehelp.com/>

Lots of general information about divorce. The site has lots of graphics, so it loads slowly.

DivorceSource

<http://www.divorcesource.com/>

Lots of general information about all aspects of divorce.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Peace Begins at Home

<http://www.besafe.org>

From Jane Doe, Inc., this site has a lot of information on prevention of domestic violence, and services for victims.

Danvers Police Department Web Site

<http://www.danverspolice.com/domviol.htm>

A great place to go for general information on the process of obtaining a restraining order.

GENERAL SELF-HELP LEGAL SITES

These are general sites which contain information about many areas of law including family law.

Massachusetts Bar Association's Law.Help

<http://www.massbar.org/lawhelp.html>

Pamphlets on a wide variety of legal issues.

Legal Information Institute

<http://www.law.cornell.edu/>

One of the best legal sites on the web, with links to federal and state statutes and case law.

The WWW Virtual Law Library

<http://www.law.indiana.edu/law/v-lib/lawindex.html>

Links to every type of legal information.

HALT

<http://www.halt.org>

HALT is one of the largest legal reform and self-help organizations in the country. The site includes full-text "Everyday law" guides on a wide variety of topics, a state-by-state guide to small claims courts, and legal headlines of interest to consumers.

Nolo Home Page

<http://www.nolo.com>

The premier self-help legal publisher presents articles on 5 or 6 currently "hot" consumer issues. There are lots of links to other sites on these same topics.

West's Legal Directory: About the Law

<http://www.wld.com/conbus/welcome.html>

Includes links to a law dictionary for the lay person, introduction to the US Courts, pamphlets from state bar associations, and articles from the Encyclopedia of American Law on 42 different subjects.

FindLaw

<http://www.findlaw.com/>

FindLaw is a comprehensive searchable legal resource that includes a strong topical index of Internet resources in a variety of different legal subject areas.

DISCLAIMER

Addresses listed in this pamphlet are current as of the time of its publication. These web sites contain general legal information which should not be considered legal advice. When faced with a legal dispute it is almost always best to consult an attorney. The Office of Richard Iannella, Register of Probate does not make any warranties, guarantees or representations concerning the accuracy and reliability of the materials on these web sites.